MUSIC FESTIVAL OF MISSOURI TEACHERS.

Annual Convention at Columbia in June Promises a Rare Treat to Members.

gations from every county in the State and from Kansas City and St. Louis will attend. As planned, the festival and convention will prove a musical treat. The leading artists of Missouri, as well as those other States, have been invited to take part, and it is assured that many of them will do so.

The attendance at the concerts to be given this year at Columbia is not restricted to music teachers. Music lovers in general are invited to be present. Likewise, membership in the association is not restricted to music teachers. The ranks are open to any teacher. The only idea is to advance the class of music taught in the State, and the aid of those engaged in all branches of the work of education is needed for this. To stimulate musical composition of a better class, the association has invited composers to submit manuscripts in competition. One hundred dollars in prizes have been offered for the winners of the competition. One hundred dollars in prizes have been offered for the winners of the competition.

Louis N. Eichenwald Thought He Was Divorced From One.

Louis N. Eichenwald, who is charged in a divorce suit brought by Tessa F. Eichenwald, with having another wife, admitted in Division No. 3 of the Circuit Court Saturday that he married another woman before the plaintiff, but said he thought he was divorced from her.

The suit against Eichenwald was begun before Judge Douglas, sitting for Judge Ryan, a few days ago. Eichenwald not appearing to contest the case, Judge Douglas continued the trial and had Eichenwald summoned into court.

Doctor Piner came to Hopkinsville this afternoon to preach a funeral sermon. He was at the station waiting for the train to return to Bowling Green, when Ware entered.

"Tve been hunting for you," said Ware, as he advanced with a drawn revolver.

"I have no weapon or means of defense," said Doctor Piner, calmly.

"Well, I will give you one," said Ware, making a motion as if to draw another weapon. As he did so he was seized. The train arrived and Doctor Piner went to Bowling Green. Ware was arrested and will be given a hearing to-morrow.
